Volume VIII

Foreword:

These are the young years, the years when time means only the day after tomorrow. But these are the years we remember most; the times we cannot forget. These are the times we recall and would like to relive. And in a few years, we will remember these times with joy or, perhaps, sadness.

"For to everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven.
A time to be born,
A time to die;
A time to weep,
A time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
A time to dance;
A time to love,
A time to hate;
A time for peace,
Oh, God, Its not too late."

Dedication

Steve Birdwell

We have lost a friend,
and a good one, too.
He was always cheery Never blue.
He took part in every sport,
and a sport he was in every sort.
Yes, he had his faults
like the rest of us do,
but a greater guy no one knew.
For he was a friend to me and you.
He was called to meet his Lord and he went like a Trojan who had lain down his sword.
We know not why he was called to rest
but the Lord always knows what is best.
Yes, we have lost a friend,
and a good one, too.
But, his memory will always linger,
with me and you.

This year the Student Council was very active. They held a "victory breakfast" for the football team before the game with Sheffield. They sponsored the "Sadie Hawkins Dance", The Mr. and Miss M. S. H. Dance and the Friendship Dance. They also sponsored Religious Emphasis Week and Americanism week. The Student Council started the tradition of Students of the Month in which they selected a boy and girl each month for their services to the school.
